Numb. 4158

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday September 13. to Monday September 17. 1705.

Madrid, August 28. N. S.

THere being Advice, That the Confederate Forces on the Frontiers of Portugal were marching out of their Quarters of Refreſhment, the Marſhal de Teſſe went from hence to Caſeres, the laſt Place where his Army encamped; and being arrived there the 24th Inſtant, immediately began to draw his Troops together, and ſent a Reinforcement to the Gariſon of Badajos, which Place it is thought the Allies intend to beſiege. The 26th a Courier arrived here from Catalonia, with Advice of the Confederate Fleet being come before Barcelona, and having put on Shore a Body of Land Forces: Since which another Expreſs is come from Valentia, with an Account, That 3 or 4000 of the Inhabitants had taken up Arms, and declared for the Houſe of Auſtria, and had ſecured themſelves of Denia, a good Seaport Town, and ſome other Places: And the Vice-Roy deſiring that ſome Troops may be ſent to his Aſſiſtance, Don Joſeph Salazar marched that way yeſterday with 100 of the Duke of Anjou's Horſe-Guards; as did likewiſe this day 300 Men drawn out of a new raiſed Regiment which is quartered in our Neighbourhood: And it is ſaid they are to be followed by a further Reinforcement. The Duke of Anjou intending, in Imitation of the French King, to ſet on foot a Body of Troops, to be called the Troops of his Houſhold, the Number of them is ſettled as follows; 4 Troops of Horſe-Guards, of 200 Men each; and 3 Regiments of Foot-Guards, the firſt to be called the Spaniſh, the ſecond the Flemiſh, and the third the Italian Regiment; to conſiſt of 4 Battalions each; which 'tis computed will amount in the whole to 7800 Men.

From the Imperial Camp at Trevigilio, September 2. On the 28th paſt the Enemy's Troops made a great Forage; but with ſo ſtrong a Guard, that all our Parties could do, was to take 9 of their Men Priſoners, and 28 of their Horſes. The 29th, upon Advice that a Party of about 60 of the Enemy's Horſe came daily to a certain Place to view the Poſture of our Army, 60 Huſſars were ſent thither to wait for their coming; but the Duke of Vendoſme having Notice of it, ſent out his Piquet-Guard that way, conſiſting of 400 Horſe, whereof 200 attacking our Huſſars, obliged them to give Ground; but 100 German Horſe coming to their Aſſiſtance, they repulſed the Enemy, who retired with the Loſs of ſome of their Men killed, one taken Priſoner, and of 7 or 8 of their Horſes, which our Men took. On our ſide a Dragoon was killed, and two Lieutenants wounded. The 31ſt the Enemy ſent out 500 Horſe and 300 Foot to get Intelligence of our Motions; but they meeting with our advanced Guards, were obliged to retire with Loſs; and our Men purſued them above a League. Yeſterday and this day nothing happened material.

Vienna, Sept. 5. N. S. The Count de Schonborn, whom the Emperor has lately appointed to be Vice-Chancellor of the Empire, arrived here yeſterday from Mentz. His Imperial Majeſty has received an Account of the Death of the Duke of Zell, whoſe Princely Virtues, and his conſtant and firm Adherence to the true Intereſt of the Common Cauſe, and of the Empire in particular, make his Loſs deſervedly lamented. We are expecting with ſome Impatience from the Hungarian Deputies, who lately returned from hence to the Malecontents, an Account of their Diſpoſition towards an Accommodation. It is ſaid the Emperor has conſented that Tirnau ſhould be the Place where the Conferences ſhould be held for that effect. In the mean time General Herbeville, according to our laſt Advices from his Army, continued his March on this ſide the Danube towards Buda, where he was to paſs that River yeſterday. He intended to leave Count Palfy in the Diſtrict of Raban with a Body of 2500 Men, to prevent any Excurſions the Malecontents might make into theſe Parts; and was to be joined at Buda by the Body of Troops under General Glockelsberg, which would make up his Army above 20000 effective Men. It is ſaid that General Herbeville deſigns to march from thence to Great Waradin, then to ſend General Glockelsberg with a Detachment to the Aſſiſtance of General Rabutin, who makes head againſt the Malecontents in Tranſilvania, and to march himſelf with the reſt of his Army into Upper Hungary, to oppoſe the Malecontents there. We hear that Prince Ragotski, with the main Body of his Troops, is poſted near Neytra; and that Count Berzeni, with another Body of Malecontents, is encamped near Scalitz, and hath ſent a Detachment to beſiege the Caſtle of Goldingen, and another towards Kochenau, with Orders to endeavour to make an Incurſion into Auſtria.

Falmouth, September 10. Yeſterday came in here from London the George Galley, George Tyto Maſter, the Fly Galley, John Rogers Maſter, the Greenwich Galley, William Eſterſon Maſter, and the Ormond Galley, Nicholas Smith Maſter.

Whitehaven, Sept. 10. A Fleet of about 40 laden Colliers ſailed lately from hence for Dublin, under Convoy of one of Her Majeſty's Ships. Two Veſſels are arrived here from the North of Ireland, and a light Collier from Dublin.

Plimouth, September 11. The Frankland Packet-Boat came in here this day from Falmouth; as did alſo the Houblon Galley of London, Captain Hambleton Maſter, homeward bound from Antego. This day alſo ſailed from hence a Squadron of Her Majeſty's Ships commanded by Sir John Jennings; as did likewiſe two Merchant-men belonging to Genoa, and bound for London.

Briſtol, September 12. Yeſterday came into this Port the Roſe of Dublin from Kinſale. This day came in the Little St. Jacob of and from Stockholm.

Whitehall,